Moonraker & Canyon Creek trails

The Moonraker is a great mix of superb single tracks and old roads. The majority of trails are rated intermediate in difficulty. The upper network is reached by turning off the Kicking Horse Trail road 6.5 km from the Columbia River Bridge. To access the lower network, drive south of Golden to Nicholson, turn towards Sander Lake and drive 5.4 km to reach the parking lot at Sander Lake.

Map Legend
- Easiest
- Intermediate
- Advanced
- Access Road
- Bridge
- Dashed Line is Road
- Solid Line is Singletrack
- Respect Private Land
- Camping
- Fireplace
- Parking
- Hiking Trail
- Viewpoint
- Cell Tower

For accommodation info in Golden go to: TourismGolden.com/accommodations

www.TourismGolden.com | 1.800.622.GOLD (4653)
The new CBT Mainline Trail connects the Moonraker Trails and town. This trail can be ridden both up and down and is an excellent XC ride. The trailheads are at near the Cedar Lake Campground and at the Columbia River Bridge.